VOLUNTEER CODE

As a volunteer I realize that I am subject to a code of ethics similar to that which binds professionals in the field in which I work. I like them, assume certain responsibilities and expect to account for what I do in terms of what I am expected to do. I will keep confidential matters confidential.

I interpret "volunteer" to mean that I have agreed to work without compensation in money, but having been accepted as a worker, I expect to do my work according to standards, as paid staff expect to do their work.

I promise to take to my work an attitude of open-mindedness; to be willing to be trained for it; to bring to it interest and attention.

I believe that my attitude towards volunteer work should be professional. I believe I have an obligation to my work, to those who direct it, to my colleagues, to those for whom it is done and to the public.

Being eager to contribute all that I can to human betterment, I accept this code for the volunteer as my code to be followed carefully and cheerfully.
